

Additional Resources Civic Design April 7 Community Call: “Communities of Practice”

- Civic Design Studio: This two-week course supports individuals or teams in shaping more equitable processes and solutions. In this course, you will practice mindsets of diversity and inclusion, participation and engagement, shared decision-making and accessibility.
- "Equity Learning Community" available to all US Federal Employees (the content is currently cleared for govt wide use but not cleared for public release so it requires a federal ID to log in and access. Follow up with Arianne Miller if you have questions: Arianne.miller@opm.gov)
- Civic Design Library: The Civic Design Library is a crowdsourced data set of civic design resources created by global practitioners working at the intersection of design and the public sector.